

PRODUCTION Regional Report

Reporting Period: Series that were in production between September 1, 2018 – August 31, 2019

Definition: English language series with Principal Photography locations 150km or more outside of Toronto or Vancouver. For French Language series, it must be 150km or more outside Montreal

Template Instructions

Provide one entry per production.

Region: List the names of cities/towns where Principal Photography was shot. If it includes a wide variety of locations, you can enter “North Ontario” or “Multiple Locations on East Coast” or even “Multiple Locations Across Canada” and then expand on this in the Regional Reflection column.

Project: Provide the show title and a brief synopsis (logline).

Type of Programming: this refers to the CRTC category; provide the number and name of the category (i.e. 11B, reality television)

Season Number: If a one-off special or stand-alone series, please indicate as such, or provide the season number

Regional Reflection: Expand on how the location was reflected in the series. For example: Biopacks for contestants are featured in each episode. These were shot on location in Spruce Grove, Calgary, High River, and Fort McMurray in Alberta; Laval, Pointe-Claire, Pierrefonds in Quebec; Bowen Island, Victoria, Gibson in BC; St. Andrews West, Fort Erie, Ottawa, Wasaga Beach, and Chatham in Ontario. You can provide additional small details about how the locations were reflected, i.e. if it was part of a key plot or a character’s backstory, or if the different locations appeared repeatedly throughout the series, but please keep it as concise as possible.

Montreal, QC	Attraction Images	Big Rig Warriors takes viewers inside a unique sub-culture and into the double lives of professional trucker families from Quebec, Ontario Alberta & BC who ride the highways all week, but find themselves behind the wheel again on weekends, competing in drag races for fanatic crowds at “Truck Rodeos” in Quebec, Alberta, Ontario and the U.S.	2B Documentary Series	1	English production produced in Montreal, QC – shot in rural areas of Quebec, Ontario, Alberta and British Columbia.

Vancouver Island, BC	Mayhem Entertainment	Rust Valley Restorers Seasons 1&2 follows passionate car fanatics Mike Hall, his son Connor and his right hand man Avery as they open a new restoration shop in the car-obsessed community of 'Rust Valley' – actually Tappen valley in Central BC (near Salmon Arm). They're on a mission to restore classic cars to their former glory - some are relics they pull from the 400 rusted cars Mike has collected in his 'field of dreams' while others are commissions from car fanatics who turn to Mike to create the car of their dreams. The team have to barter and horse-trade for parts; work on fast deadlines; and turn to the other car-crazed citizens of Rust Valley to help them get the job done	2B Documentary Series	1	Principal photography in Vancouver Island.
Southern Ontario	Yap Films	D-Day in 14 Stories tells the story of the largest seaborne invasion in history: the D-Day invasion of Normandy on June 6, 1944 – through the moment-by-moment experiences of veterans from all sides who were on the ground throughout the day - from Allied soldiers to French resistance fighters to German soldiers - using their riveting accounts to reveal the invasion in unprecedented detail.	2B Documentary Series	1	Shot in various remote locations in southern Ontario and Quebec. For example, Mulmur ON, Cobourg ON, Hamilton ON, St. Lambert QC. Also, in Port Dover ON.
Southern Ontario	Cream Productions	History Erased Season 1 is a theoretical exploration into the affects on the world if specific countries, including the U.K., U.S., China, and Italy, didn't exist.	2B Documentary Series	1	70% of the series was shot in Canada, including in Hamilton and other locations in remote Southern Ontario.
Southern Ontario	Cream Productions	History Erased Season 2 This innovative event series examines the butterfly effect of removing key individuals, ideas and inventions from a given nation's history to highlight that	2B Documentary Series	2	45% of the series was shot in Canada, including in Hamilton and Millgrove, Ontario.

		country's contributions to global culture and human history. In each episode, we imagine the world without a specific country as their game-changing leaders, innovators and social-political achievements are erased. What unfolds? Global catastrophe, societal upheaval and chaos!
Nemiah Valley, British Columbia	Breakthrough Entertainment & Bonterra Productions	The Wild Ones follows the efforts of fearless indigenous cowboys in B.C.'s pristine Nemiah Valley as they fight together for the survival of the wild Qayus horses who roam in their midst. Set in the secluded paradise of the B.C. interior, the Nemiah Valley is part of the Xeni Gwet'in's 1700 square kilometers of Title lands and home to a growing herd of as many as 1,000 Qayus. These wild horses are among the smartest, strongest, and rarest on the planet. Under the direction of current Chief Jimmy Lulua, the Xeni Gwet'in cowboys continue to draw upon centuries of experience managing the Qayus. This series explores the high-octane lives of modern cowboys and the unbreakable bond between human and horse.	2B Documentary Series	1	Principal photography in remote B.C.
Montreal, QC	Sardine Productions	Chop Chop Ninja: Iro, an exuberant young ninja, has one big dream: to become THE Chop Chop Ninja. There is no higher achievement for a ninja! Is he ready for it? Not even close. Does he want it? More than anyone. Will getting there be fun? Absolutely! Along with his three friends - fellow classmates at the Ninja Academy - Iro protects his island home from a steady onslaught of treacherous and not so treacherous	7E Animated television programs and films	1	English production produced in Montreal, QC
