

November 30, 2016

Via GC Key

Ms. Danielle May-Cuconato
Secretary General
Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission
Ottawa, Ontario

Dear Ms. May-Cuconato:

Re: Maple Leaf Sports and Entertainment Tangible Benefits Report for the 2015-16 Broadcast Year (Broadcasting Decision CRTC 2012-443)

Rogers Media Inc. (Rogers) wishes to confirm that we have no expenditures to report regarding the Maple Leaf Sports and Entertainment (MLSE) tangible benefits for the 2015-16 broadcast year.

The obligation to spend these tangible benefits rests with the corporation 8047286 Canada Inc. (8047286 Canada) which is jointly controlled by Rogers Communications Inc. (Rogers) and BCE Inc. (BCE). Rogers and BCE have agreed to spend the tangible benefits equally and separately. Accordingly, Rogers is responsible for spending $3,782,310.

In Broadcasting Decision CRTC 2012-443, the Commission granted the flexibility to spend the tangible benefits at any point over a seven-year period in order to ensure there are sufficient funds available to achieve the desired results in programming. To date, Rogers has not reported any spending with respect to the tangible benefits package for MLSE.

Should the Commission have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Sincerely,

[Filed electronically]

Susan Wheeler
Vice-President, Regulatory, Media