

Broadcasting Decision CRTC 2007-8-1

Ottawa, 5 February 2007

Canadian Broadcasting Corporation

Moncton, Newcastle and Campbellton, New Brunswick

Application 2006-0763-2

Public Hearing at Regina, Saskatchewan

30 October 2006

Erratum

1. In paragraph 11 of CBA Moncton – Conversion to FM band, Broadcasting Decision CRTC 2007-8, 8 January 2007 (Decision 2007-8), the Commission indicated that the broadcasting licence issued to the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation to operate a new English-language FM radio programming undertaking in Moncton to replace its AM station CBA would “expire 31 August 2007, the current licence expiry date for CBA.” However, the current licence expiry date for CBA is 31 August 2008. Accordingly, the Commission hereby corrects Decision 2007-8 by replacing paragraph 11 of that decision with the following paragraph:

The licence will expire 31 August 2008, the current licence expiry date for CBA. The licence will be subject to the conditions set out in the appendix to this decision, including a condition authorizing the licensee to simulcast the programming of the new FM station on CBA for a transition period of three months following the commencement of operations of the FM station.

2. Furthermore, in the French version of Decision 2007-8, Newcastle and Campbellton were omitted from the description of the localities named in the application. Accordingly, the Commission corrects Decision 2007-8 by adding Newcastle and Campbellton to the localities named in the application.
