Across Canada

Application 2008-0301-6, received 27 February 2008

Public Hearing in the National Capital Region

7 July 2008

YTV OneWorld – Category 2 specialty service

The Commission approves an application for a broadcasting licence to operate a new Category 2 specialty programming undertaking.

1. Corus Entertainment Inc., on behalf of a company to be incorporated, filed an application for a broadcasting licence to provide YTV OneWorld, a national, English-language Category 2 specialty service that would offer programming from around the world targeting children aged 6 to 17 and their families. The schedule would include programs devoted to entertainment, humour, travel, games and science and technology. The applicant stated that no more than 15% of all programming broadcast during the broadcast week would be drawn from each of category 7(d) and category 8, as set out in item 6 of Schedule I to the Specialty Services Regulations, 1990.
2. The Commission did not receive any interventions in connection with this application.
3. The Commission is satisfied that the application is in conformity with all applicable terms and conditions announced in Introductory statement – Licensing of new digital pay and specialty services – Corrected Appendix 2, Public Notice CRTC 2000-171-1, 6 March 2001. Accordingly, the Commission approves the application by Corus Entertainment Inc., on behalf of a company to be incorporated, for a broadcasting licence to operate the national, English-language Category 2 specialty programming undertaking YTV OneWorld. The terms and conditions of licence are set out in the appendix to this decision.

Appendix to Broadcasting Decision CRTC 2008-257

Terms and conditions of licence for the Category 2 specialty programming undertaking YTV OneWorld

Terms

A licence will be issued once the applicant has satisfied the Commission, with supporting documentation, that the following requirements have been met:

- an eligible Canadian corporation has been incorporated in accordance with the application in all material respects;
- the applicant has entered into a distribution agreement with at least one licensed distributor; and
- the applicant has informed the Commission in writing that it is prepared to commence operations. The undertaking must be operational at the earliest possible date and in any event no later than 36 months from the date of this decision, unless a request for an extension of time is approved by the Commission before 18 September 2011. In order to ensure that such a request is processed in a timely manner, it should be submitted at least 60 days before that date.

The licence will expire 31 August 2015

Conditions of licence
