3. The Commission notes that these licensees operate as not-for-profit corporations and, as such, are not subject to the requirements set out in section 15 of the Radio Regulations, 1986 relating to Canadian content development contributions.
4. For both applications, the Commission received an intervention from the Ontario Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services relating to the participation of the stations in their jurisdictions in the National Public Alerting System (NPAS). The public record relating to these applications is available on the Commission's website at www.crtc.gc.ca under "Public Proceedings."

¹ The original licence expiry date for this station was 31 August 2012. The broadcasting licence was administratively renewed until 31 August 2013 as a result of Broadcasting Decision 2012-472.

² The original licence expiry date for this station was 31 August 2012. The broadcasting licence was administratively renewed until 31 August 2013 as a result of Broadcasting Decision 2012-447.

5. As specified in its three-year plan, the Commission will be looking at measures to ensure the participation of Canadian broadcasters and telecommunications service providers in the NPAS. Therefore, the Commission will not impose conditions of licence requiring the participation of broadcasters in the NPAS at this time. However, the Commission expects all licensees to voluntarily participate in the NPAS, so that Canadians receive timely warnings of imminent perils.

Reminder

6. Pursuant to section 22 of the Broadcasting Act, the Commission reminds the licensees that the broadcasting licences for these stations will cease to have any force or effect if the broadcasting certificates issued by the Department of Industry lapse.
