Unsolicited Telecommunications Fees – Telemarketing regulatory costs for 2024–25 and fees paid for 2023–24

1. The Unsolicited Telecommunications Fees Regulations (the Regulations)¹ came into force on 1 April 2013 and were subsequently amended on 20 July 2015.² The Regulations prescribe fees that will be assessed to recover the Commission’s costs to investigate and enforce the National Do Not Call List (the Commission’s “telemarketing regulatory costs,” as defined in subsection 4(4) of the Regulations).
2. Subsection 4(4) of the Regulations defines “telemarketing regulatory costs” as follows:

The telemarketing regulatory costs of the Commission for a given fiscal year are the portion of the costs of the Commission’s activities for that fiscal year, as set out in the Commission’s Expenditure Plan published in Part III of the Estimates of the Government of Canada and, if applicable, the Supplementary Estimates of the Government of Canada, that are attributable to the Commission’s responsibilities under section 41.2 of the Telecommunications Act and that are not recovered under any regulation made under section 68 of that Act.

3. Under subsection 5(1) of the Regulations, the Commission is required to publish each year a public notice of the Commission’s telemarketing regulatory costs.
4. The Commission hereby announces in this public notice that the estimated telemarketing regulatory costs for fiscal year 2024–25 total $3.3 million.
5. Under subsection 5(2) of the Regulations, the Commission is to publish, each year in a public notice, the total of all amounts paid under subsection 3(1) of the Regulations in the last completed fiscal year. In accordance with subsection 3(2) of the Regulations, the determination must be made no later than 90 days after the end of each fiscal year to determine actual fees payable by those persons who subscribed to the National Do Not Call List and paid the Commission’s component of the fees.
6. The Commission hereby announces in this public notice that the total of all amounts paid under subsection 3(1) of the Regulations in the last completed fiscal year (2023–24) was $3,095,748. The total of all amounts paid in 2023–24 was less than
