¹ Note that there was a typographical error in the letter that accompanied TCI's application. In the letter, TCI stated that items A-1 and A-5 were only available in its operating territory in British Columbia and that there was no existing customer for those items. The company was actually referring to items A-1 and A-4, as the tariff pages being amended contain no references to any item A-5, and item A-4 is the final item for these tariff pages in their entirety. The change to the tariff reflects the correct item number.
