1. In a staff letter dated April 24, 2008 in regard to the disclosure of information concerning nomadic VoIP E9-1-1 service in the Follow-up to Telecom Decision CRTC 2007-125 proceeding, the following ruling was made:

“Commission staff determines that the Companies and the ASPs are required to disclose the following information contained in their economic evaluations, to the extent submitted in confidence pursuant to Decision 2007-125, as applicable:

a) Total present worth of all costs (sum of parts b, c, d, e below)
b) Total present worth of capital costs causal to the service
c) Total present worth of capital costs causal to the demand
d) Total present worth of expenses causal to the service
e) Total present worth of expenses causal to the demand
f) Present worth of demand
g) The corresponding monthly or annual rates.

Commission staff notes that the provision of this information takes into account Commission staff’s past rulings with respect to the cost information to be disclosed for services priced at Phase II costs plus a 15 percent mark-up."

Accordingly, with regard to the Companies’ August 7th submission relating to Ontario and Quebec, provide on the public record the numbers associated with:

i) the sum of Total Hardware Present Worth of All Costs (Page 9 of Attachment) and Total Software Present Worth of All Costs (Page 10 of Attachment) (This total item is the total present worth of capital costs causal to the service, or item b) in the April 24, 2008 list)

ii) the expected monthly rates per user for each of the Cost Recovery Options presented in Table 1 on page 5 of the Attachment (Item b) in the April 24, 2008 list).
